REVISIONS IN THE NEW LOANS POLICY (S.G.W. CAMPUS)

Because of the lack of adequate study space within the SGW libraries which makes in-library consultation of materials difficult, the Library wishes to announce the following revisions to the recently implemented Loans Policy, effective October 15, 1974:

- BOUND PERIODICALS may circulate for 3 days to University faculty, students, administration and staff.

- UNBOUND PERIODICAL ISSUES must be consulted in either the Norris or Science and Engineering Library. Those who have Campus Delivery privileges may have desired issues sent from one library to the other.

- MICROFORMS AND TECHNICAL REPORTS may circulate for 7 days to University faculty, students, administration and staff.

- RECALL OF PERIODICALS AND MICROFORMS
  The present procedures for recalling books will be in effect for periodicals and microforms. When recalled, they must be returned directly to a Circulation Desk Assistant within 24 hours.

- CAMPUS DELIVERY
  -Periodicals and microforms can be sent from one SGW Library to the other via Campus Delivery.
  -Periodicals and microforms can be returned via Campus Delivery unless they have been recalled.
  -Recalled periodicals and microforms must be returned directly to a Circulation Desk Assistant.

THE RUDNYC'KYJ COLLECTION AT THE VANIER LIBRARY (Loyola Campus)

Professor Jaroslav Bohdan Rudnyc'kyj, one of the five commissioners of the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism has recently donated a collection of unpublished papers relating to the Commission to the Vanier Library. The collection includes submissions to the commission, preparations of the commission and drafts of sections of its final report.

Professor Rudnyc'kyj has also donated a collection of Ukranian journals, for the most part published in the U.S. and Canada, dealing with aspects of Ukranian culture, society and politics.
